Dear Brent Walker,

This is good news! You have been chosen as one of the “Best Lawyers in Dallas 2016” in the Tort Product & Medical Liability Litigation: Plaintiff category. After tallying thousands of votes cast by your peers, we assembled a panel of esteemed counselors to review the list, which ultimately included 695 lawyers. Congratulations on making it into this select group. The list will be published in our May 2016 issue.

A member of the D Magazine editorial team will contact you to confirm the spelling of your name and contact information for publication. We will not publish information that cannot be confirmed.

Additionally, an advertising representative from D Magazine will contact your office to discuss the opportunity for you to buy an ad. Whether you choose to purchase an ad or not, you’re on the list. Our list is an editorial undertaking and in no way is affected by advertising. Lawyers cannot pay to be on the list, and only those chosen by their peers to appear on the list can buy an ad in the “Best Lawyers” section.

Please accept my compliments on all your hard work and my congratulations on the respect you have earned among your colleagues in the legal community.

Best,

Tim Rogers
